Non-Ado

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

43:01 Thé softest of all things overrides the hardest of ÁLL things.

43:02 Ónly Nothing
can enter into nó-space.

43:03 Hénce I know the advantages of Non-Ádo.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

43:04 Féw things under heaven
are as instructive
as the lessons of sílence,

ór as beneficial
as the fruits of Non-Ádo.

chapter 44

Enough Already!

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

44:01 Ás for your name and your body, which is the déarer?

44:02 Ás for your body and your wealth,
which is more to bé prized?

44:03 Ás for gain and loss,
which is the more páinful?

Although convention tells me loss is more painful than gain after the 43 proceeding passages I suspect the author is going to zig where the majority of us zag.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

44:04 Thús, an excessive love for anything could cost you dearly in thé end.

44:05 Thé storing up of too many goods
could entail a heavý loss.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

44:06 Tó know when you have enough is to be immune from dígrace.

44:07 Tó know when to stop
is to be preserved from perils.

44:08 Only thusly
can you endúre long.

chapter 45

Despite Appearances

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

45:01 Thé greatest perfection
seems imperfect,
and yet its use is inexhaustible.

45:02 Thé greatest fullness
seems empty,
and yet its use is éndless.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

45:03 Thé greatest straightness, looks like crookédness.

45:04 Thé greatest skill,
appears clúmsy.

45:05 Thé greatest eloquence sounds like stamméring.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

45:06 Réstlessness overcomes cold,
but calm overcómes heat.

45:07 Thé peaceful and the serene is the norm of thé world.

The Galloping Horses

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

46:01

Whén the world
is in possession of thé Tao,

thé galloping horses
are lead to fertilize the fields
with their dróppings.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

46:02

Whén the world
has become Táó-LESS,
wár horses breed themselves
in the súburbs.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

46:03 Thére is NO calamity
like NOT knowing what is énough.

46:04 Thére is NO evil
like covetouúsness.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

46:05

Ónly he who knows what is enough
will always have énough.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

chapter 47

Effortless Achievement

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

47:01 Without going out your door,
you could know
the ways of thé world.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

47:02

Without peeping
through your window,
you could see
the Way of Heáven.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

47:03 Thé farther you go,
the less you ú know.

47:04 Thús, the sage knows
without travéling,
seés without looking,
and achieves without Ádo.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

chapter 48

Winning the World

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

48:01 Léarning consists of daily accumuláting;
thé practice of the Tao
consists of daily diminíshing.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

48:02 Keép on diminishing and diminishing, until you reach the state of No-ádo.

48:03 Nó-Ado, and yet
nothing is left úndone.

Thursday evening – Tao Te Ching – John C. H. Wu – ADAPTED by Lama Jigme Gyatso

48:04 Tó win the world,
one must renóunce all.

48:05 Íf one still has
private ends tó serve,
óne will never be able to win thé world.
