V. Devotion Contemplation

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

Deity Overview

The archetype of enlightened activity is known by many names:

ín English as Green Heroine, in Sanskrit as Shya-ma Ta-ra, and in Tibetan as Dról Jäng.

We consider the attributes of the archetype NOT to worship her as a child to a parent but to lay the foundation of simile and metaphor which empower our contemplations with whole-brain participation.

Circumstantial

Known in Sanskrit as Va-ti, and literally translated as Pure Land her paradise known as Yur-lod Kur-pa or Turquoise Pure Land

is said to be found upon A-va-lo-ki-te-shva-ra's mount Po-ta-la

in A-mi-ta-bha's blissful pure land of Su-kha-va-ti.

Physical

Upon a beautiful eight-petaled lotus compassion's moon cushion, and wisdom's sun cushion, sits youthful, beautiful, healthy Green Ta-ra.

Sitting in the advancing posture of enlightened activity her left leg of mindfulness is tucked in and her right leg of meditation is outstretched

Upon her right knee rests her generous right hand palm facing upward and fingers outstretched.

Representing her reliance upon the Buddha's example, teachings, and students Green Ta-ra's left thumb touches the tip of her left ring finger at her heart

holding the stem of a blue lotus which blossoms beside her left ear reminding us to listen to the whispers of centered spontaneity.

Green Ta-ra wears the five sustainable hemp garments of crown-tie, scarf, shawl, skirt, and belt

for her practice of letting-go has transformed her hate, craving, clinging, jealousy, and pride into mirror-like, discerning, basic-space, all-accomplishing, and equalizing WISDOMS.

Green Ta-ra wears beautiful anklets, bracelets, triple-necklace, armlets, earrings, and crown for she has mastered giving, NON-violence, patience, zeal, mindfulness, and meditation.

Green Ta-ra smiles genuinely as she lovingly gazes upon us.
Half her hair is gathered in a top knot and the rest plays about her shoulders.

Interpersonal

The ten emerald syllables of Green Ta-ra's harmonious, Ma-ha Mantra

Óm Ta-re Tu-ta-re Tu-re Sö-ha encircle her horizontal heart wheel.

Mental

Hovering in its hub is the joyful syllable Tam of her seed, Bi-ja Mantra.

VI. Love Contemplation

Réborn to my empathetic nature

I could long:

for all minds to be as joyfully wise ás Ta-ra's mind

(in the aspect of mustard seed-sized syllablé Tam),

for all communication to be as harmoniously loving as Ta-ra's speech (in the aspect of her Ma-ha man-tra),

for all bodies to be as healthy as Ta-ra's beautiful form,

and for all circumstances to be as fortunate as Ta-ra's bountiful paradise.

VII. Letting-go Contemplation

Relaxing deeper into wakefulness all circumstances could look as if they were as NON-graspable as Ta-ra's abundant pure-land of light,

all bodies could feel
as Ta-ra's blissful body of light,

all communication could sound as if it was as NON-graspable as Ta-ra's melodious mantra of light,

and all minds could seem
as Ta-ra's joyful seed Tam of light.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

1. Parable of the Movie Concessions

It was 1971 and I was in first, or second grade.
A class mate's mother had taken many of us to see "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory" for his birthday.

My family did not often go to movies so this was very exciting for me.

Timid, and uncertain, and polite, I did what I was told,
and gratefully accepted what I was offered.

I was offered hot buttered popcorn and what seemed like a huge vessel of Dr. Pepper, a soda I had heretofore never tasted.

So there I sat, in the darkened theater, with my class mates and several hundred strangers; eating my popcorn, and sipping my Dr. Pepper, and all the while enjoying the movie, which I still remember, to this day.

Upon first consideration one could understandably assume that the movie could distract me... from my snacking and sipping and thus undermine my enjoyment of them.

But I experienced the opposite to be true: that the movie enhanced my enjoyment of the popcorn and the soda...

and the popcorn and the soda enhanced my enjoyment of the movie.

And this could be very much like our practice of meditation... where during our inhalation we silently, and mentally recite, “Notice this...”

and during our exhalation
we silently, and mentally recite, “relaxing!”...

while actually physically relaxing as best we can.

For just as I was able to observe the movie while snacking and sipping we can watch our mind while noticing and relaxing.

We could notice sensations, and flavors, and scents, and sounds, and sights...

as well as our emotions, and intentions, and reasonings, and recollections, and imaginings.

And we could notice all those things passively and non-conceptually.

And as we physically relax into each exhalation, for that is what our bodies have evolved to do,

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

all that we noticed as we breathed in could feel a little less graspable and a little easier to mentally release as we relax into our out breath.

And just as the snacking and the sipping did not undermine my enjoyment

but rather enhanced it...

likewise our silent and mental recitations of “Notice this...” and “relaxing!” in harmony with our breathing... does NOT undermine our ability to watch the play of mind or relax into its non-graspable nature but rather facilitates it.

More than two millennia ago a Jewish carpenter is said to have explained...

that man was not made for the Sabbath, but Sabbath for man.

Likewise, I tell you that we do not sit in meditation that we might more efficiently recite “Notice this...” and “relaxing!” but rather that we silently and mentally recite “Notice this...” and “relaxing!” that we might more efficiently meditate

so that our passive and non-conceptual observation of the play of mind and our physical, and visceral, and mental relaxation into its non-graspable nature....

might be more easy, and effective,
and transformative.

Recall Darth Bane's rule of two, wherein there must be a master to have power, and a student to crave it.

This is a form of elitism and manipulation.

And over the millennia many so-called spiritual teachers have used cryptic meditation instructions, and techniques...

to reinforce a rule-of-two-like elitism and coercion.

Some deliberately chose obfuscation and coercion because they embraced elitism and power, and prestige...

others chose the same obfuscation and coercion because they lacked the mental acuity to know any better.

But I am here to tell you that something does NOT have to be difficult to be effective.

I'm telling you the opposite.
I'm telling you that something must be easy and intuitive....

if it is to be sustainable, no less effective.

But do not take my word for it;
put it to the test.

Play with these techniques every morning and every evening that you, like Rey Skywalker... might meditate like a Jedi.

2. Karezza Tantra's Mental Panacea

One can not gaze at an image of Dröl-ma Mar-mo Yab Yum without noticing that she is sporting in Tantric union.

Just as the Baskin Robins franchise of ice cream parlors claims to offer thirty-one flavors likewise there are many flavors of sexual tantra.

As with all things, there are also patriarchal as well as matriarchal takes on what the Buddhist Tantrikas refer to as Karma Mudra in Sanskrit, or Yab Yum if you prefer Tibetan.

In the book “Cupid’s Poisoned Arrow” the author Marnia Robinson does an outstanding job explaining the flavor of sexual tantra that could be described as:
matriarchal, or valley, or yin, or bonding , or oxytocin-oriented, through the lenses of anthropology, and genetics, and neuroscience, and trenchant pragmatism.

Oh how I wish that her text was required reading in every junior high school Sexual Education class for the way we choose to make love or masturbate, and our choices in pornography, and erotica, and even fantasy

have a profound effect upon each of our midbrain's dopamine pathways, and oxytocin pathways, and our mental health, and our physical health, all our relationships, as well as our educational and vocational well-being.

The endocrino-neurological, and emotional, and intellectual, and romantic, and social, and educational, and vocational, and developmental healing made available by the subtle and often G-rated techniques of Karezza tantra are a virtual panacea.

3. Parable of the Movie Patron

Let us revisit our friend the movie patron.
He has purchased his ticket, and his snack, and his beverage, and has taken his seat in the air conditioned comfort of the movie theater.

After a handful of trailers, how many?
Just enough to make him forget what movie he came to see.

And after those trailers the movie begins.

And whether it is adventure, or horror, or comedy, or drama

our friend the patron sits back and enjoys the ride as he knows he has little other choice.

For he does not confuse himself for the screenwriter, nor editor, nor director, nor producer and knows completely

that what occurs upon the screen is utterly out of his control.

So he nibbles his snack and sips his beverage and enjoys the show.

Likewise, when the wise sit down, cross-legged to meditate they know it is NOT their job to select the sensations, or flavors, or scents, or sounds, or sights, or emotions, or intentions, or reasonings, or recollections, or imaginings that cartwheel across the metaphoric stage of their mind.

What then is their job?

To notice: vulnerable, and passive, withOUT bothering to analyze or label and to physically relax that we might mentally let go.

And to do all this in harmony with the tightening tendencies of each inhalation and with the relaxing propensities of each exhalation.

For, in our very good fortune, that is how evolutionary biology selected for our bodies and minds to best operate.

And if we put this advice into action, every morning and every evening, then we could very much be like a child, with a video game:
difficult, and frustrating, and seemingly impossible to prevail against;

who at long last receives the manufacturer's cheat-codes and is at last able to transform their time spent with the video game from an ordeal, into a delight.

4. Whole-food Veganism's Physical Panacea

Buddhist tantra is the path of love and letting-go.
Love is more than just a feeling.

Compassion is an intention that effects our choices, and our behaviors, and the ripples that we generate that, in turn, effect the world around us.

Choosing a cruelty-free diet is one of the easiest ways to diminish the suffering created by our consumer choices.

The benefits generated by embracing a whole-food vegan diet are not limited to non-human animals with whom we share this planet, nor even this planet itself, the only place in the known universe that we are certain sustains life (for the time being).

The physical, and en-dro-crin-o-lo-gi-cal, and neurological, and psychological benefits that we could savor on a whole-food vegan diet have been observed in peer reviewed scientific journals.

In the parody song “White and Nerdy” Weird Al Yankovic sings of a fellow who “...does calculus just for fun...”.

Which reminds me of Dr. Michael Greger, M.D. whose full time job is to analyze EVERY peer-reviewed, nutrition-oriented study published in English, every year.

This man is no ideologue, content to twist the facts in order to support his world view.

For his top priority is to discover the dietary interventions that could prevent disease, reverse disease, and increase quality of life as well as longevity.

And towards that end he uses meta analysis to follow the facts wherever they lead;
like a contemporary, medical Sherlock Holmes...

if Sherlock was so geeky as to name his book after a Monty Python skit.

“How NOT to Die”

first explores the top fifteen causes of premature death in America, secondly shares a dozen things we could do to prevent and reverse these disorders, and thirdly contains hundreds of citations to peer-reviewed studies.

This book is a virtual panacea of all medical disorders.

5. Two Paths

In the Tao Te Ching we read of two paths in any endeavor, Lao Tzu warned against the former and encouraged the latter:

the path of yang or the path of yin, the path of patriarchy or the path of matriarchy, the path of rigidity or the path of flexibility, the path of elitism, or the path of egalitarianism, the path of control or the path of permissiveness, the path that craves certitude or the path that is comfortable ambiguity, the path with authority as the source of truth or the path with truth as the source of authority,

the direct path or the circuitous path, the active path or the passive path, the path of competition or the path of cooperation, the path of cruelty or the path of compassion the path of pride or the path of love, the path of ego or the path of NO-self (aka NOT-self),

the path of scattered-ness or the path of centeredness, the path of contrivance or the path of spontaneity, the path of effort or the path of ease.

6. Essence of the Four Sets of Vows

Karma Chakme Rinpoche was a brave soul who received sky treasures, or Ter-ma in Tibetan, from Chen-re-zik, the archetype of enlightened compassion, guiding him to begin the journey out of sectarianism and fundamentalism.

In his effort to transcend sectarianism he embraced the teachings and practices of both the Kagyu as well as Nyingma sects as best he could.

In his effort to transcend fundamentalism he strove to simplify Highest Yoga Tantra or Ut-ta-ra Tan-tra in Sanskrit, as well as essentialize the hundreds of Hinayana, Mahayana and Vajrayana vows.

Towards the latter: he taught that the essence of all the Refuge vows was to simply trust in the Bud-dha, Dhar-ma and Sang-ha, he taught that the essence of all the Pratimoksha vows of morality is NON-violence, he taught that the essence of all the Bodhisattva vows of compassion was to share all our good karma with all beings, and he taught that the essence of the Tantric Samaya of wisdom was to see ourselves as Chen-re-zik and see our teacher as Chen-re-zik's teacher, A-mi-ta-bha.

Many centuries later Lama: Jigme Gyatso received sky treasures, or Ter-ma in Tibetan, from Chen-re-zik, guiding him to journey further out of sectarianism, fundamentalism, and patriarchy.

In terms of sectarianism he was led to explore the teachings and practices of each sect of Buddhism and in terms of transcending fundamentalism, which is one of patriarchy's symptoms, he was taught further simplify the four sets of vows thusly: the essence of the Refuge vows is to simply rely upon the example of Buddha's life story, apply the instructions of the Dharma,

and humbly rely upon the support offered by fellow Sangha members, (those who are striving to master the Buddha's teachings) as well as lovingly support Sangha members with our skill set as best we can;

the essence of the Pratimoksha vows of morality is still NON-violence which includes a whole-food, vegan diet which practices NON-violence toward the planet, NON-human animals, as well as our own lucidity and longevity;

the essence of the Bodhichitta vows of compassion is to blend our practice of the four bases of mindfulness with compassionate and loving intentions for each being of each world or each galaxy real or imagined;

the essence of the Tantric Samaya of wisdom is to enthusiastically apply our teacher's instructions and follow his example as best we can.

7. Good night and Wake up Channels

In Buddhist Tantra it is often taught that within our bodies of flesh, blood and bone, lay energy channels

that fundamentalists squander inordinate amounts of time and energy visualizing as tubes comprised of light.

It is said we have a blue central channel, the width of an arrow shaft, that begins in the lower abdomen, ascends about a thumb's width before the spine,

piercing the horizontal bladder wheel (or chakra if you prefer Sanskrit), navel wheel, heart wheel, and throat wheel *as it ascends into the skull where it arches forward brushing against the crown wheel at the fontanel

*There are two side channels.
The moon, or left, side-channel is red, the width of hay or straw and begins at our urethra,*

brushes past the most sensitive part of either our citreous or our penis, climbs up the left of our central channel,

just below the bladder wheel and then just below the navel wheel,* looping thrice around the central channel just below the heart wheel, looping once again just below the throat wheel, and then just below the crown wheel before terminating in the left nostril.

The sun, or right, side channel is white, also the width of hay or straw and begins in our rectum, brushes past either our G-spot or prostate, climbs up the right of our central channel,

just above the bladder wheel and then just above the navel wheel,*

just above the heart wheel,*

just above the throat wheel and then once again just above the crown wheel

As liberals upon the path of matriarchy none of this needs to be memorized or even visualized.

*Our right channel could be stimulating, so we impeded it when its time to go to sleep, by closing our right eye and reading through our left

Conversely, our left channel could be sedating, so we impeded it is time to start our day, by rolling over to our left side and laying in the fetal position for a few moments as thoughts of the day's tasks begin to clarify like friends emerging from a fog bank.

Upon rising, we could also close our left eye, and read though our right as we sit upon the toilet to further wake our bodies.

8. Walking Meditation

After fifteen weeks of twice daily livestream practice you should have automatically memorized the 24 contemplations of Tantra's: mindfulness, compassion, insight, love, and letting-go.

Which should come in handy, as this week you could begin training in brisk, walking meditation.

Its simple, just perform the 24 contemplations you've already grown accustomed to while briskly walking through your neighborhood.

This is especially useful during times of emotional upset or even PTSD episode.

Of course if you're so upset as to experience disorientation then please limit your walking course to just going around your block, that way you won't get lost, or walk into traffic.

Blending the 24 contemplation techniques you've already learned with brisk walking allows us to bilaterally stimulate our hippocampus and amygdala which aids in the processing of difficult events and emotions.

REMEMBER: upon this path we do not practice rigid concentration which stimulates our sympathetic nervous system, but rather relaxed mindfulness which accesses our parasympathetic nervous system; the quick path to the light side, or eager youngling.

9. Sky Gazing

In “Red Tara’s Treasure” the phrase “queen of the sky” could remind us literally of the practice of sky-gazing, where we perform the contemplation, compassion, and meditation that we are taught in the sixteen week series of meditation classes while gazing into the sky.

Any time of day we could gaze into the sky while meditating, but it could be especially poignant to gaze at the sun, doing so only during the first hour of sunrise, or the last hour of sunset.

In Sanskrit this practice is sometimes referred to as Surya Chaku.

Common sense prevails:

1 – remove your corrective lenses or contact lenses, gaze with the left eye for four breaths, then with the right eye for four breaths, alternating back and forth;

2 – only do this for as long as it feels comfortable, giving yourself permission to progress gradually such as adding seven seconds per day, or seven minutes, or more every day.

3 – relax the tissues of your face, especially around the eyes, allowing the eyelids to close somewhat, viewing the sun through one's eyelashes thus occasionally giving rise to the illusion of subtle rainbows encircling the sun;

4 – don't wander into traffic, for your vision will be dazzled after completing this exercise, thus while it is fine to practice this during opening verbal contemplation & compassion, as well as the silent meditation...

I recommend turning away from the sun during the practice of the closing silent contemplation and compassion thus allowing one's eyes to recalibrate to the ambient lighting.

5 – I recommend the lion posture Simha asana, feet flat on earth or floor, resting one's tuchus upon one's calves, forearms resting upon knees.

Neither mysterious nor occult this practice could act as a subtle tonic to your body.

1. Four Levels of Practice

- Browsers – come to class but do NO homework and see NO transformation.*
- Students – come to class AND do their homework every morning AND every evening; they evolve.*
- Yogis – students who perform one-day retreats every quarter, month or week, practicing four times that day (i.e.: 6am, 10am, 2pm & 6pm).*
- Monastics – students who live as if on permanent retreat, practicing four times every day (i.e.: 6am, 10am, 2pm & 6pm).*

Twenty minutes of formal silent meditation for First Level Students – those who are seeking a “life lubricant”

Forty minutes of formal silent meditation for Second Level Students – those who desire a “profound evolution” such as healing PTSD, overcoming a tragic past, or transcending a disempowering and oft repeated pattern

Sixty minutes of formal silent meditation for Third Level Students – those who yearn to rapidly master enlightenment’s Blissful-mindfulness, Peaceful-insight and Spontaneous-compassion.

Unconscious Competence

When have we mastered the archetypical Dakini's vulnerability, non-grasping, compassion and centered spontaneity?

When we practice their techniques: spontaneously, habitually, easily and effectively; and their practice has so defined us that we no longer chase a goal... that we no longer even feel the need to ask whether or not we have mastered it.*

3. The Means of Mastery

*Ten thousand hours of regular, lucid, strategic practice is often the minimum required to accomplish mastery needed to teach others.
Any student who enthusiastically practices their homework every morning AND every evening for sixteen consecutive weeks could be considered an apprentice.*

A Journeyman is an apprentice who has accumulated 5,000 hours of study and 5,000 hours meditation; ideally for eight hours daily over the course of three and a half years...

and has demonstrated intellectual comprehension and emotional evolution.

and has demonstrated intellectual and emotional mastery.
The 10,000 hours is a minimum, for some folks require 20,000 hours, 30,000 hours or more to demonstrate intellectual and emotional mastery.*

Although this path of mastery can be long, it is neither mysterious nor occult.

4. The Origin of Mindfulness Meditation

A tale is told of a north Indian prince of the Shakya clan who forsook his life of privilege and debauchery to become a homeless wandering monk; and who studied with not one but two prominent teachers who taught him the path of deep concentration.

After time and effort each of these teachers were so impressed with he who some called Siddhartha but who called himself Gautama that they proclaimed that he had mastered their teachings, had become their equals, and invited him to share the leadership of their respective monastic communities.

However, each time Gautama politely refused explaining that he had still not found what he was looking for (which of course sounds very much like a U2 lyric, doesn't it?).

Again choosing to leave (in this case a modicum) of prestige and comfort

Gautama retired to the forest where for the next five years he practiced austerities in the company of five ascetics until at last he saw that enduring physical austerities was as ineffective at generating peace as was indulging in the debaucheries of the palace.

It was at that time that he discovered the middle way between all extremes.

It seems he applied that epiphany not only to his physical practices but to his spiritual ones as well for from that point he no longer practiced concentration (arbitrarily setting the mind upon one object and shoving everything else away).

He saw that concentration was based in effort and in control and as such was unsustainable and so he chose to practice the opposite.

He forsook the path of controlling and embraced the path of allowing.

He allowed his body and mind to experience whatever they experienced without any modification or contrivance.

He relaxed into inhalation and found it ideal for perception.

He relaxed into his exhalation and found it ideal for release: spontaneous and uncontrived.

After years of squeezing tight his mind in concentration he was now relaxing it in vulnerable mindfulness and as such his doors of perception swung open wide upon their hinges flooding his body and mind with a wealth of information.

To keep from drowning in such a deluge he took to organizing all experience in terms of the four bases of mindfulness which he often described of as phenomena (or circumstance), body, interpersonal-feelings, and mind.

Gautama also found it helpful to coordinate contemplations of compassion, love, and impermanence with these four bases of mindfulness

and so he developed this system that slowly swings from active contemplation to passive meditation like a pendulum's gentle motion within a grandfather clock.

This method proved so effective that in time people took to calling him the awakened one or Buddha.

5. The Texts upon which this Practice is Based

This set of two practices “From Petulance to Peace” and “Mindfulness, Love and Letting-go” are based on four texts:

- #1 the “Mindfulness with Breathing Discourse” or A-na-pa-na-sa-ti Sut-ta,*
- #2 the “Loving Kindness Discourse” or Met-ta Sut-ta,*

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

- #3 the “Failings of the World Discourse” or Lo-ka-vi-pat-ti Sut-ta, and
- #4 the “Book of the Beneficial Way” or Tao Te Ching.

In the “Mindfulness with Breathing Discourse” we learn of:
the four bases of mindfulness, the seven enlightenment factors, the two fruits of practice and to correlate all those contemplations with our breathing:

In the “Loving-kindness Discourse” we learn to lovingly wish safety, health, peace, and joy to all beings everywhere as well as to compassionately wish that all would be free of sufferings.

In the “Failings of the World Discourse” we learn to first view the four bases of mindfulness circumstance, body, relationships, and mind through the lens of dread and thus contemplate loss, pain, scorn, and shame.

We are also taught to view the four bases through the lens of desire and so consider gain, bliss, praise, and fame.

Then we are taught to let-go of all eight worldly failings through contemplation of impermanence: the universal panacea.

In the “Book of the Beneficial Way” we explore the dichotomy of the two paths and are encouraged to abandon the path of the reptilian brain and embrace the path of the mid-brain.

6. How Long does the Journey Take?

Fundamentalism is a symptom of patriarchy it delights in self-aggrandizement and the disempowerment of its minions.

So it is not surprising when when fundamentalists insist that one must practice for eons to master the Buddha's path.

The only people who say that are those who know that their techniques are impotent, flaccid, worthless, and weak.

The Buddha never taught that one must practice for great oceans of time in order to accomplish mindfulness' true knowledge or wisdom's liberation.

To the contrary, he taught that one could master his path of mindfulness, compassion, contemplation, love, and letting-go in as little as:

*seven years... or seven quarters,
or seven months,*

*or seven fortnights, or seven weeks,
or even seven days.*

When have we mastered the Buddha's techniques?

When we practice them: spontaneously, habitually, easily, and effectively.

*So attend a livestream every morning and every evening:
for five minuets per session the first week, and ten minutes per session the second week.*

Each week lengthening the duration of your participation by five minutes.

Until within fifteen weeks you're meditating like a Jedi.

Make use of this opportunity of working with a live master by typing your questions in the chat window and applying his advice.

7. Eleven Benefits of Loving-kindness

In the Numerical Discourses of Buddha, Elevens – set 16 (or A-ngut-ta-ra Ni-ka-ya E-ka-da-sa Ni-pa-ta 16 if you prefer Pali) it is written that the Buddha enumerated eleven benefits to be had from the contemplation of loving-kindness.

The Buddha begins this discourse by explaining that training the mind in loving-kindness is integral to our liberation from the tyranny of craving and clinging.

He then explained how it is not sufficient to only contemplate loving-kindness rather it must be applied to our communication, behavior, and commerce.

He enumerated the benefits thusly:

- 1. sleeping in comfort,*
- 2. awaking in comfort,*
- 3. freedom from (the tyranny of) evil dreams,*

- 4. being dear to humans,*
- 5. being dear to non-humans,*
- 6. being protected by the De-vas (gods and goddesses),*
- 7. being safe from fire, poison, and sword (weapon),*

8. one's mind easily meditates, 9. one's demeanor is serene, 10. one's death is peaceful, and

11. if one fails to accomplish enlightenment in THIS life one will take rebirth in a celestial realm where one will continue one's training in comfort.

As a vegan feminist I am comfortable with either a literal or figurative interpretation of this discourse.

The skillful contemplation of both compassion and love have been of great benefit to me and I hope they will a great boon to you as well.

8. The Hedonism of our Brainstem and the Pettiness of our Midbrain

Let us begin with a bit of context.

(or Lo-ka-vi-pat-ti Sut-ta if you prefer Pali)

we learn, what my Tibetan teachers referred to as, the eight worldly concerns.

What are they?

Are they random?

Did the Buddha merely pull them out of dog's ear?

Just as Zacharias Jansen required a microscope to first see the minute entities dwelling in a drop of pond water or Galileo Galilei needed a telescope to view the moons of Jupiter,

likewise the eight worldly concerns are seen when we view the four bases of mindfulness through the two metaphoric lenses of dread and desire.

Let's take a closer look.

In Tantra we often enumerate the four bases of mindfulness as circumstance, body, communication, and mind.

we see circumstantial loss and physical pain.*

When we view circumstance and body, also known as lot and form,

we see circumstantial wealth and physical pleasure (or bliss).*

These dreads of scarcity and pain, as well as the desires for wealth and pleasure are the domain of our brainstem.

From the point of view of natural selection they were crucial to our evolutionary biology.

Animals that did not feel dread of scarcity and pain nor desire for abundance and pleasure did not live long enough to pass on their genetic traits or even have the desire to reproduce.

If we wish to grow and evolve into happy, well-adjusted adults we must neither indulge our every impulse nor ignore and repress them.

The Buddha's solution is to use mindfulness to notice our impulses and then harness their raw energy through the contemplations of compassion, love, and non-graspability as well as the meditation of awareness and acquiescence.

When we peer at communication and mind through the lens dread we see scorn and obscurity or shame.

In the context of desire we perceive praise and fame.

Scorn, shame, praise, and fame are the domain of our social midbrain.

Before we are quick to write them off as petty and trivial let us recall that our ancestors did not survive because in comparison to other animals

*we were swift of foot, nor strong of limb, nor sharp of claw,
nor long of fang.*

On the contrary our survival was largely due to our big old brains and our propensity to cooperate.

Ancient humans who did care whether they received the support of their fellows or not usually did not live long enough to pass on that genetic trait.

Being esteemed and even favored by our fellows is a biological imperative and an evolutionary need.

the hedonistic impulses of our survival brainstems and the petty drives of our social midbrains could make us neurotic and unfulfilled.*

It is therefore imperative that we exercise the courage to vulnerably practice the mindfulness that notices the cravings and clingings of our body and mind and also practice the contemplation that harnesses their energy to drive the engines of our compassion, love, and wisdom as well as the meditation with which we are able to process our experience and release it in the most therapeutic manner.

In short it can be uncomfortable and down-right embarrassing to practice the vulnerable mindfulness that notices our hedonistic, petty, and petulant impulses.

However our task upon the spiritual path is to neither ignore, indulge, excuse, deride, nor condemn them

but to notice them and harness them and release them in the most wonderful way.

9. The Power of Rhetorical Questions

What is an affirmation?

It is a lie you tell yourself with enthusiasm in the hopes that it will come true.

The act of composing, no less applying affirmations...

is a manifestation of patriarchy's tendencies to strive and to strain to bend reality to your will.

*It is controlling, and aggressive,
and exhausting at best.*

A wealthy and well-known self-help guru speaks in a voice: hoarse, and gravely, and strained, and injured after a lifetime spent shouting affirmations in the privacy of his car.

But the Buddha did NOT find enlightenment upon patriarchy's path and neither will you.

*Where then did he find liberation?
Upon the path of matriarchy, the path of acquiescence, and vulnerability, and centered spontaneity, and non-analysis.*

*I call it the path of the vegan feminist.
It is easy, and gentle, and profoundly transformative.*

It swings gently like the pendulum of a grandfather clock from contemplation to meditation and back.

Half the contemplations are compassionate or loving

and the second half rely upon skillfully worded, questions; that assume and are rhetorical.

By definition a rhetorical question is one asked NOT to elicit an answer BUT merely for effect.

The beauty of a rhetorical question that is well worded it that is drops its assumption into the depths of our subconscious the way a hungry vegan might drop pieces of fruit into a running Vita-mix whilst making their morning smoothie.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

Remember, remember, remember therefore that the power of a rhetorical question lies NOT in striving or straining to solve its query as if it were a great, metaphysical rubric's cube.

No, the power of a rhetorical question: assumptive and well-worded

is only accessed by the silent and mental recitation of the question

*from a place of vulnerability and surrender in harmony with the breathing

and in coordination with the body's relaxation that evolution has hard-wired into every exhalation

and that turns the key that opens the door to the healing that comes from mental release.

10. Concentration is NOT Mindfulness

The path of the reptile-brain is the path of fear, aggression, rigidity, and controlling tendencies.

And although it leads to many places, enlightenment is NOT one of them.

Concentration is a function of the reptile brain a tool of patriarchy; it chooses its focus to the exclusion of all else.

Upon concentration's path there is NO room for spontaneity, nor relaxation, no less release.

A tragedy of our time is that so many self-professed teachers of mindfulness are not really teaching mindfulness but are merely teaching concentration.

For whenever a teacher tells you “...and when you notice that your mind has wandered gently bring it back...”

that individual is NOT teaching mindfulness but really concentration regardless of the labels they bandy about.

Well what then IS mindfulness?

A function of the mammalian mid-brain, mindfulness vulnerably and passively notices whatever seems to pass through the sphere of its awareness

whether it is a sensation, or a flavor, or a scent, or a sound or a sight, or an emotion, or an intention, or a thought, or a memory, or a fantasy.

Centered, and spontaneous, and passive, and vulnerable mindfulness merely notices withOUT analyzing, or labeling, of shoving some things away, or clutching tightly at other things.

Mindfulness notices and insight physically relaxes thus setting space to mentally release.

Evolutionary biology has selected for mindfulness to be wired into each inhalation and for insight to be wired into each exhalation.

Although the Buddha's path of mindfulness and insight is simple it NOT easy

for few things require as much courage as true vulnerability.

11. Evolution, Dopamine, and Orgasm

There is NO sentience driving evolution; just two random mechanisms.

The first being genetic mutation and the second being natural selection.

DNA is huge, and complex, and ungainly and there are bound to be copying errors.

Whether those variations in replication are subtle or profound they really are bound to happen during the vast ocean of time.

*Natural selection is easy.
These mutations in an organism* either help its reproduction, hinder its reproduction, or are, for a time, neither beneficial nor harmful.

*Evolutionary biology selects neither for peace, nor happiness, nor fidelity, nor fulfillment.
It ONLY selects for reproduction.*

Therefore it could come as little surprise that some of our neurological mechanisms could support our reproduction AND undermine our happiness simultaneously.

In the final chapters of the novelization of Carl Sagan's "Cosmos" the triune brain is discussed.

All of us each have three brains: a very old brainstem common to all reptiles,

a mid-brain shared by all mammals and a forebrain common to all primates.

Deep within each of our reptilian brainstems is a Dopamine based reward system.

Its highs are high its lows are low it is dramatic, exciting, easily bored,

wired to crash and burn and prone to addiction.

In 1973 Theodosius Dobzhansky wrote: “Nothing in biology makes sense except in the light of evolution.”

How could the rock-star-like impulses of our brainstem remotely serve our genes?

Heterosexual relationships: passionate, short-term, and numerous go a long way to guaranteeing a deep gene pool.

*Animals born without the reward circuitry to reinforce eating, don't eat.
Thus they die prior to passing on their genetic information and that trait is lost.*

*Likewise, individuals born without reward circuitry to reinforce reproduction do not mate
and that trait is lost.*

*We are the descents of gluttonous, debaucherous horn dogs.
We have inherited their reward systems, their impulses, and their consequences.*

*But we are not reptiles, are we.
We are mammals.*

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

As such our mid-brains have their own reward system and it is oxytocin-based.

A mirror opposite of its predecessor the mammalian reward system is wired for long term fulfillment, sustainability and pleasure.

Pleasure is the common denominator shared by both the reptilian and mammalian reward systems

but where the pleasures of the reptile brain undermine vocational, intellectual, creative, and interpersonal success the delights of the mammalian brain actually support them.

There is a reason why many of India and Tibet's greatest saints were not celibate monks but rather yogis who savored the subtle tantric arts.

*But what has that to do with neurology?
Come, let us imagine a spectrum of pleasure from zero to ten.*

Imagine ten as orgasm be it wet or dry and seven or eight as the point of no return.

The folly of contemporary edging practices wherein the participants race up to a seven, an eight, or even a nine and then pull back;

is that in so doing they are tapping into the mechanisms of their brainstem

which reward orgasm and punish its avoidance.

However by maintaining one's pleasure at about the three level one is accessing the gentle, oxytocin based reward system of their mid-brain.

This, of course, opens up quite the can of worms.

*What about boredom?
After world war one it was asked*

“How are you going to keep them on the farm after they have been to Paris?”

And so you could legitimately ask how could one be content with an Oxytocin pleasure level of three, no less delight in it, after having sampled the brain melting pleasures of level ten Dopamine?

Internally one could practice the mental yoga of awareness and acquiescence whether you call it Mahamudra, or Ati-yoga, or Mahasandhi, or Trekchöd the practice is the same.

When we and our partner notice our bodies inhaling we could silently and mentally recite, “Notice this...

*and when we feel our bodies exhaling
we could silently and mentally recite, “relaxing!”*

while actively relaxing as best we can.

Not only could this prevent a debaucherous frenzy but it could open the door to subtle pleasures heretofore unexperienced.

In fact, merely being on the same metaphoric page as your partner and both practicing the same meditation could be an extremely intimate experience.

Externally we could take two or three weeks to have nightly g-rated pleasure fests with our partner

enjoying such innocent delights as hand holding, snuggling, scalp rubs, back scratches, and foot rubs.

Ask any recovering addict and they'll tell you that when they first get off of heroine all their senses seem dulled.

However after a period of time there is a hedonistic recalibration not unlike returning a computer to its factory installed settings.

As humans our brains exhibit neuroplasticity and can adapt and change surprisingly quickly.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

However diligent we may be our brainstems however are remarkably devious and when we feel our pleasure ascending *to a three and a half, a four,

or even a four and a half* it is most definitely time to sublimate that sexual momentum.

However if we strive to do so violently it will only pull us deeper down into our brainstem.

So we will use two methods: one rooted in our mid-brain and the other in our fore-brain.

Where the brainstem is focused on my pleasure our mid-brain could lovingly concern itself with the pleasure of all beings *of all worlds, of all galaxies,

real or imagined.*

In coordination with our breath and with our partner

*during our inhalation
we could silently and mentally recite, “Profound bliss...”*

we could silently and mentally recite “for all forms!”*

Here we are using form as a synonym for body.

Performing this for only four breaths while simultaneously drawing one's palms before one's torso up one's centerline, and over one's head in harmony with the inhalation and articulating one's arms out and down in harmony with one's exhalation could be an excellent adjunct recruiting our subtle energies in a manner known in Sanskrit as Anu-yoga.

While persisting with the arm movements one could access one's primate fore brain with the next contemplation.

*As we inhale
we could silently and mentally recite, “How this bliss...”*

*and as we exhale
we could silently and mentally recite, “always change?”*

This rhetorical question could be a profoundly empowered way *of letting-go of the coarser drives

of our brainstem.*

After four rounds of this exercise one could return *to the savoring meditation of “Notice this...

relaxing!”*

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

while also returning to the giving and receiving of sexual flavors.

*Is this as easy as falling off a log?
Of course not.
Like any new skill it involves a learning curve.*

A fool expects perfection whereas the wise are content to learn from their errors:

vulnerably, and passively, and non-conceptually, and viscerally.

In fact the more centered spontaneity one brings to the practice the more rapid, delightful, and fun one's journey could be.

12. “Should” is Poison

A good hearted fellow asked for a contemplative solution to, what he felt, were the destructive urges that he experienced when in public.

“I should do this.”

“I shouldn’t do that.”

for it is the unctuous whisper of contrivance;

a dark legacy of our reptilian brain-stem.

On the other hand centered spontaneity is that which paves enlightenment’s path.

One of the many benefits of training in the Buddha's technique of passive meditation is that we are able to notice even the most grotesque of impulses without falling into the extremes of indulging them or repressing them (which would undermine our mindfulness).

For it is so much more liberating to find a way to release them: easy and sustainable.

As we breathe IN
we could silently and mentally recite, “Notice this...”

and as we breathe OUT
we could silently and mentally recite, “relaxing!”

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

After twelve or so breaths we could apply one of the Buddha's contemplations such as the following:

During the inhalation we could actively contemplate love by silently and mentally reciting: “Health bliss for all for FORMS...”

(“FORMS” being just a monosyllabic synonym for “BODIES”)

and during the exhalation we could active contemplate wisdom by silently and mentally reciting: “each felt, yet changing!”

After four repetitions or rounds we could return to the passive meditation:

“Notice this...
relaxing!”

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

And back and forth we could swing from passive meditation to active contemplation and back again,

like the ponderous motion of the brass pendulum of a grandfather clock.

There are some who fear this technique to be too passive.

But I assure you that although impulses may easily dominate us when we are in a state of scatteredness or contrivance

each of us is neurologically incapable of indulging a destructive impulse from the place of centered spontaneity that is the fringe benefit of practicing “Notice this...

relaxing!”

13. Buddha's Breathing Method

Spiritual technologies taught from the perspective of patriarchy are often about control; controlling our circumstance, controlling our bodies, controlling our relationships, and controlling our minds.

patriarchy is rather fond of techniques that contrive, and strain, and strive* to bend those circumstances, bodies, relationships, and minds to their will.

But the Buddha did not teach from the perspective of patriarchy, he taught from that of matriarchy.

Oh sure, he began his spiritual journey upon the path of patriarchy, but having surmounted its summit he did not care much for where it had led him.

So he started from scratch upon matriarchy's path and rapidly earned the nick name by which he is known by us today.

Gautama, who would someday be known as the Buddha,* surrendered all hopes of trying to control his circumstance, body, relationships, or mind.

*And instead merely observed them and released them
in the most wonderful way.*

Recognizing that labeling, no less analyzing that which we perceive is just another, more subtle form of control; Gautama released those as well.

Hindu breath control is some times called Prana Yama but it is not unique to the Indian sub-continent.

Wherever minions of patriarchy strive to control their circumstances, bodies, relationships, and minds you will find many who practice a form of breath control.

the techniques and trappings of patriarchy, he taught from the perspective of matriarchy and as such did NOT teach any breath control.*

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

He did NOT teach folks to select the length, or depth, or rate of respiration but to merely notice it:

passively, vulnerably, and non-conceptually FREE from the habit of analysis and labeling.

*He taught us to coordinate our contemplations and meditations with our breathing:
spontaneous and uncontrived.*

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

As one who has enthusiastically tread the Buddha's path for numerous decades I have observed how all bodies tense during inhalation and relax during exhalation;

and how, as such, inhalation is best suited for mindfulness while exhalation is ideal for letting-go.

The minions of patriarchy tend to be competitive, and ambitious.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

They tend to elbow their way into to positions of leadership and be the most prolific of teachers.

And although the techniques they espouse are well known and widely practiced they are profoundly impotent.

And in their rigidity and in their stubbornness when they are confronted with the ineffectuality of their methods these minions of fundamentalism turn to superstition claiming that their techniques had previously worked in a golden age far off in a mythical and distant past

but will not work during these days of darkness when the quality of things and the lifespan, emotions, views, and experiences beings have so deeply degenerated.

These apologists of patriarchy bleat that their so called powerful techniques can NOT work in the absence of ceremony although the Buddha taught that an hour's worth of mindfulness was far more effectual than a lifetime of ritual.

After a lifetime of study and practice I can assure you that patriarchy's path leads to a dead end

whereas this path of Vegan Feminism is the easy path to great peace.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

14. What is “Emptiness or Voidness”?

When reading books about Mahayana, or Tantric Buddhism the terms empty, emptiness, void, and voidness are bandied about quite abundantly.

However, upon closer reading you could find that little satisfactory explanation is offered and what is provided is either so shrouded in pseudo-intellectualism, or blind superstition

as to be less than worthless, and to actually undermine and distract one from the journey upon the Buddha's path; the way of letting go.

*How has this happened to Buddhism?
How has a significant chunk of the Buddha's teachings come to have been obfuscated by minions of fundamentalism: elitist, deceitful, or dull witted?*

*To answer that we'll have to step back for a bit of context.
A tale is told that in the Buddha's first discourse he taught of four noble truths.*

FIRST – there is stress.

There will always be something that we hate that we must endure,

there will always be something that we crave that we do not have, there will always be something that we cling to that will be torn away from us.

SECOND – although some causes of our stress could seem to be out of our control we have the unpleasant talent of taking whatever stress we've been handed and making it much worse:

for the intensity of the stress we endure is directly proportional to the intensity of the hatred, craving, and clinging we experience.

THIRD – just as there is stress, there is also a state wherein we are free from the tyranny of our stress.

FOURTH – just as there are things that create and intensify stress likewise there are things that can undermine our stress, its causes and that which exacerbate them, namely our hatred, craving, and clinging.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

This is the Buddha's eight-fold path, which is easier to think about in terms of contemplation, action, and meditation.

Contemplation's first fold is the wisdom of letting-go, and it's second fold is compassion and love.

Action's third, fourth, and fifth folds are merely compassion, love, and letting-go skillfully applied to our communication, behavior, and commerce.

Meditation's sixth, seventh, and eighth folds are simply the enthusiasm we bring to the two fold process of mindful awareness as well as insightful relaxation and release.

Now that we've survived the overview let's return to the first noble truth: right-view's contemplation of the wisdom of letting-go.

Just as biology only makes sense in light of evolution likewise voidness or emptiness only make sense in the light of letting-go.

Let's return to the task of letting go and dig a little deeper.

*Did the Buddha's method of letting-go consist of faith: blind, and grasping, and rigid?
No, it did not.*

*Was the Buddha's method of letting-go comprised of pseudo-intellectual skullduggery?
No, not at all.*

The Buddha's method of letting-go was predicated upon marrying the two truths with the two breaths.

The conventional truth is mindfulness: vulnerable, spontaneous, and non-analytical.

The ultimate truth is the wisdom of letting go: that comes from physical relaxation, which sets space for mental release.

Let us take our bodies for example, and begin with a literal approach.

our body could FEEL permanent, independent, and rather solid.*

However, as we physically relax into our exhalation this exact same body

could FEEL less permanent, and less independent, and less solid.

*Now we could introduce a bit of simile.
In fact as we relax into our exhalation our body could feel as if it was as non-graspable as a vast, empty void.*

And now we wade yet deeper into the waters of figurative communication.

*What could be an example of a vast, empty void?
How about the infinite azure sky, on a bright and beautiful cloudless morn* which although is tantalizing to the eyes cannot be grasped by our hands?

Consider an umbrella on a rainy day.

When we return home we might give our wet umbrella a shake and then hang it from a hook, in the mud room that its moisture might better evaporate.

Once it has dried out we close it completely, and tightly so that the snaps on its storage ribbon may meet, and then we return it to the closet.

Likewise, having explored the experience of our body's non-graspability both from the literal perspective, as well as the figurative we now convert the elaborate simile to the compact metaphor and wind-up with the concise yet cryptic statement our body is "felt yet void."

Lets contrast the use of literal statements, similes and metaphors.

We'll start with a literal statement:

Then we'll convert it to a simile:

“John is as tenacious as a dog with a bone;”

and then collapse it into a metaphor:

“John is a dog with a bone.”

Is John literally a dog?

Does he prance about on all fours striving to sniff the butts of strangers?

*Of course not,
for such things are frowned upon in polite society.*

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

Those of us stuck in the aggression, and rigidity or our reptilian brainstems have trouble with figures of speech and tend to view things literally which can give birth to some fairly absurd and destructive doctrines.

Those who've acclimated to the vulnerability and flexibility of their mammalian midbrains have an easier time delineating between the literal and the figurative.

Thus, in my practice text I first introduce figurative statements as similes before easing folks into their metaphoric counterparts;

for it requires a very special degree of stupid to confuse a simile with a literal statement.

*But why muck about with figurative speech at all if it is so prone to confuse the rigid and weak minded?
Because figurative terminology is the language of the underbrain.*

Neurologically, so much of our coarser rage, and terror, and despair are rooted in our brain stem.

And since it evolved prior to the midbrain, no less the forebrain, it is virtually deaf to words and reason.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

What, then, is the language of our underbrain?

The five senses of sensation, and flavor, and scent, and sound, and sight.

Our underbrain evolved to perceive, and think, and imagine, in terms of the five senses.

That is why figurative language, while coming with its own pitfalls, could generate such a profound effect upon our under brain.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

Sadly, as I've mentioned elsewhere the minions of patriarchy and fundamentalism: those who are enslaved by ambition, and greed, and aggression, and fear, and rigidity are very good at elbowing their way into positions of power but very bad at comprehending, no less mastering, the teachings they claim to represent.

And so we have today's sorry state of affairs where greedy politicians ignore the counsel of scientists and where religious leaders ignore the teachings of enlightened yogis.

Perhaps that is why Albert Einstein explained “Great spirits have always encountered violent opposition from lesser minds.”

15. A Guide to Chenrezig Practice

The 14th Dalai Lama of Tibet has written many forwards to many books,

but in none was he as enthusiastic as when he wrote the forward to Dza Patul Rinpoche's commentary on Chenrezig practice.

If you acquire a copy of “Heart Treasure of the Enlightened Ones” (perhaps from Amazon.com) you'll have what HHDL described as a literal "complete path" and figuratively as something very much "like an elixir for reviving the dead."

As a very young man Patrul Rinpoche wrote a Ngöndro commentary from the fundamentalist point of view.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

However, at the very end of his life he wrote "Heart Treasure..." from a profoundly liberal point of view.

Once you acquire the book, skip the commentary and go straight to the root text in the back.

If you have any difficulties with the text write me for I am at your service.

*May you and yours be happy and healthy,

17. Overview of Buddhist Sexual Tantra

Although there are many flavors of sexual tantra such as Neo-Taoist and Hindu I am only interested in practicing and teaching Buddhist sexual tantra which some people call Karezza and is known as Kar-ma Mu-dra in Sanskrit or Yab yum in Tibetan.

Why should we bother with Buddhist Tantra when porno sex is so much fun?

This could best be answered by viewing sex through the metaphoric lens of Neuroscience.

For simplicity sake we could think of our brain has possessing two primary reward systems.

The reptilian Brain-stem's reward system is Dopamine-oriented whereas the mammalian Mid-brain's reward system is Oxytocin-oriented.

These reward systems are like two sides of the same coin.

*Dopamine's highs are high and its lows are low.
The Dopamine-oriented circuit drives boredom as well as addiction* and although it could take us on an exciting rollercoaster ride its journeys typically end in a crash and burn

causing nine out of ten relationships to end in sexual frustration, sexual betrayal, or both.

Why is that?

The evolutionary factors driving the development of the Brain-stem only selected for successful reproduction and let's face it; numerous, passionate, and short-lived romantic relationships are great for the genepool but actually undermine long term physical and emotional wellbeing.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

On the other side of the coin, the Oxytocin-oriented reward system of our Mammalian mid-brain is wired for subtle pleasures, long-term relationships and optimal intellectual as well as emotional development; for our mammalian brain is most certainly wired for relationships.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

In Buddhist sexual tantra we avoid techniques that cause us to step into the tiger trap of the Dopamine oriented cycle and embrace practices that access and nurture the Oxytocin oriented cycle.

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

Simply put, the brain-stem is all about the lust that screams “give me pleasure” in contrast the mid-brain is all about the love that whispers “I love you” *to our partner, to our neighbors,

to this world,
and to all worlds, real or imagined.*

Concise yet Powerful Green Tara Practice

Many tantric fundamentalists are very choosy about which sexual favors they will partake in, opting for that which is pretty vanilla.

But tantric progressives, such as myself, like the idea that any and every sexual favor could be brought into the subtle path of tantra; claiming that it all about subtlety and timing.

*Imagine a number-line of sexual pleasure from zero to ten
wherein ten is orgasm and ejaculation and eight and a half is the, so-called, point of no return.*

The coarse pleasures of classic orgasm and ejaculation are the domain of the Dopamine-oriented cycle whereas the subtle pleasures at the three mark are the domain of the Oxytocin-oriented cycle.

Where conventional reproductive sex could be likened to a sprint to the summit of mount orgasm

Buddhist sexual tantra is more like a leisurely stroll around the base of the mountain never venturing very high up its slope.

A good book on this subject “Cupid’s Poisoned Arrow” was written by Marnia Robinson and is available on Amazon dot com.

Although her techniques of orgasmic sublimation are more Taoist than Buddhist I do appreciate her discussion of evolutionary biology and the wealth of anecdotes she includes.

Simply put, many practitioners of Hindu sexual tantra chase orgasm as a means of temporary liberation from the presence of thoughts and many practitioners of Neo-Taoist sexual tantra sublimate orgasm with the intention of enhancing longevity.

But Buddhist sexual tantra's three primary techniques we rely on to access the Oxytocin oriented cycle and to keep from slipping into the Dopamine oriented cycle multiply our mindfulness, love, and ability to let-go in the most sustainable manner.

For, in Buddhist tantra we do use neither contemplation nor meditation to escape the present moment.

Oh contraire, we embrace whatever sensation, flavor, scent, sound, sight, emotion, intention, thought, recollection, imagining, circumstance, activity, feeling, appraisal, or impulse we are experiencing in the present moment and actively contemplate them through the lenses of love and letting go and then passively process them through awareness and acquiescence.

These three techniques are introduced in the final section of almost every one of my guided meditations; a session of which we'll begin momentarily.

*Why wait to the end?
Because the early portions of the guided meditation lay the groundwork of concepts and techniques upon which the three techniques depend.*

C. End Notes

Their nudity reminds us of mindfulness' vulnerability, their bodies comprised of light remind us of NON-graspability, their beauty reminds us of love's energy, the stability with which he sits reminds of us centeredness, and the abandon with which she sports reminds us of spontaneity.

May love and insight drive our veganism.

The love that yearns to minimize our participation in the exploitation of others; and the insight the seeks sustainability, both ecological and medical.
