1. Parable of the Movie Concessions

It was 1971 and I was in first, or second grade.
A class mate's mother had taken many of us to see "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory" for his birthday.

My family did not often go to movies so this was very exciting for me.

Timid, and uncertain, and polite, I did what I was told,
and gratefully accepted what I was offered.

Easy Peace

I was offered hot buttered popcorn and what seemed like a huge vessel of Dr. Pepper, a soda I had heretofore never tasted.

So there I sat, in the darkened theater, with my class mates and several hundred strangers;

eating my popcorn,
and sipping my Dr. Pepper, and all the while enjoying the movie, which I still remember, to this day.

Upon first consideration one could understandably assume that the movie could distract me...

from my snacking and sipping and thus undermine my enjoyment of them.

But I experienced the opposite to be true: that the movie enhanced my enjoyment of the popcorn and the soda...

and the popcorn and the soda enhanced my enjoyment of the movie.

And this could be very much like our practice of meditation... where during our inhalation we silently, and mentally recite, “Notice this...”

and during our exhalation
we silently, and mentally recite, “relaxing!”...

while actually physically relaxing as best we can.

For just as I was able to observe the movie while snacking and sipping we can notice our mind while noticing and relaxing.

Easy Peace

We could notice sensations, and flavors, and scents, and sounds, and sights...

as well as our emotions, and intentions, and reasonings, and recollections, and imaginings.

And we could notice all those things passively and non-conceptually.

And as we physically relax into each exhalation, for that is what our bodies have evolved to do,

Easy Peace

all that we noticed as we breathed in could feel a little less graspable and a little easier to mentally release as we relax into our out breath.

And just as the snacking and the sipping did not undermine my enjoyment

but rather enhanced it...

Easy Peace

likewise our silent and mental recitations of “Notice this...” and “relaxing!” in harmony with our breathing...

does not undermine our ability to watch the play of mind or relax into its non-graspable nature but rather facilitates it.

More than two millennia ago a Jewish carpenter is said to have explained that man was not made for the Sabbath,

but Sabbath for man.

Easy Peace

Likewise, I tell you that we do not sit in meditation that we might more efficiently recite “Notice this...” and “relaxing!”

but rather that we silently and mentally recite “Notice this...” and “relaxing!” that we might more efficiently meditate so that our passive and non-conceptual observation of the play of mind and our physical, and visceral, and mental relaxation into its non-graspable nature....

might be more easy,
and effective,
and transformative.

Easy Peace

Recall Darth Bane's rule of two, wherein there must be a master to have power, and a student to crave it.

This is a form of elitism and manipulation.

And over the millennia many so-called spiritual teachers have used cryptic meditation instructions, and techniques...

to reinforce a rule-of-two-like elitism and coercion.

Easy Peace

Some deliberately chose obfuscation and coercion because they embraced elitism and power, and prestige...

others chose the same obfuscation and coercion because they lacked the mental acuity to know better.

But I am here to tell you that something does NOT have to be difficult to be effective.

I'm telling you the opposite.
I'm telling you that something must be easy and intuitive....

if it is to be sustainable, no less effective.

But do not take my word for it;
put it to the test.

Play with these techniques every morning and every evening that you, like Rey Skywalker...

might meditate
like a Jedi.

Easy Peace

2. Parable of the Movie Patron

3. Whole-food Veganism's Physical Panacea

Buddhist tantra is the path of love and letting-go.
Love is more than just a feeling.

Compassion is an intention that effects our choices, and our behaviors, and the ripples that we generate that, in turn, effect the world around us.

Choosing a cruelty-free diet is one of the easiest ways to diminish the suffering created by our consumer choices.

The benefits generated by embracing a whole-food vegan diet are not limited to non-human animals with whom we share this planet, nor even this planet itself, the only place in the known universe that we are certain sustains life (for the time being).

The physical, and endrocrinological, and neurological, and psychological benefits that we could savor on a whole-food vegan diet have been observed in peer reviewed scientific journals.

In the parody song “White and Nerdy” Weird Al Yankovic sings of a fellow who “...does calculous just for fun...”.

Easy Peace

Which reminds me of Dr. Michael Greger, M.D. whose full time job is to analyze EVERY peer-reviewed, nutrition-oriented study published in English, every year.

This man is no ideologue, content to twist the facts in order to support his world view.

For his top priority is to discover the dietary interventions that could prevent disease, reverse disease, and increase quality of life as well as longevity.

And towards that end he uses meta analysis to follow the facts wherever they lead;
like a contemporary, medical Sherlock Holmes...

Easy Peace

if Sherlock was so geeky as to name his book after a Monty Python skit.

“How NOT to Die”

first explores the top fifteen causes of premature death in America, secondly shares a dozen things we could do to prevent and reverse these disorders, and thirdly contains hundreds of citations to peer-reviewed studies.

This book is a virtual panacea of all medical disorders.

4. Two Paths

In the Tao Te Ching we read of two paths in any endeavor, Lao Tzu warned against the former and encouraged the latter:

the path of yang or the path of yin, the path of patriarchy or the path of matriarchy, the path of rigidity or the path of flexibility, the path of elitism, or the path of egalitarianism, the path of control or the path of permissiveness, the path that craves certitude or the path that embraces ambiguity, the path with authority as the source of truth or the path with truth as the source of authority, the direct path or the circuitous path, the active path or the passive path, the path of competition or the path of cooperation, the path of cruelty or the path of compassion...

the path of pride or the path of love, the path of ego or the path of NO-self (aka NOT-self), the path of scatteredness or the path of centeredness, the path of contrivance or the path of spontaneity, the path of effort or the path of ease.

1. Essence of the Four Vows

Karma Chakme Rinpoche was a brave soul who received sky treasures, or Ter-ma in Tibetan, from Chen-re-zik, the archetype of enlightened compassion, guiding him to begin the journey out of sectarianism and fundamentalism.

In his effort to transcend sectarianism he embraced the teachings and practices of both the Kagyu as well as Nyingma sects as best he could.

In his effort to transcend fundamentalism he strove to simplify Highest Yoga Tantra or Ut-ta-ra Tan-tra in Sanskrit, as well as essentialize the hundreds of Hinayana, Mahayana and Vajrayana vows.

Towards the latter: he taught that the essence of all the Refuge vows was to simply trust in the Buddha, Dharma and Sangha, he taught that the essence of all the Pratimoksha vows of morality is NON-violence,

he taught that the essence of all the Bodhisattva vows of compassion was to share all our good karma with all beings, and he taught that the essence of the Tantric Samaya of wisdom was to see ourselves as Chen-re-zik and see our teacher as Chen-re-zik's teacher, A-mi-ta-bha.

Many centuries later Lama: Jigme Gyatso received sky treasures, or Ter-ma in Tibetan, from Chen-re-zik, guiding him to journey further out of sectarianism, fundamentalism, and patriarchy.

In terms of sectarianism he was led to explore the teachings and practices of each sect of Buddhism and in terms of transcending fundamentalism, which is one of patriarchy's symptoms, he was taught further simplify the four sets of vows thusly: the essence of the Refuge vows is to simply rely upon the example of Buddha's life story, apply the instructions of the Dharma,

humbly rely upon the support offered by fellow Sangha members, as well as lovingly support Sangha members with our skill set as best we can;

the essence of the Pratimoksha vows of morality is still NON-violence which includes a whole-food, vegan diet;

the essence of the Bodhichitta vows of compassion is to set compassionate intention before meditation, blend our practice of the four bases of mindfulness with our awareness of all local, global, and universal beings, real or imagined, as well as to seal our practice by sharing our positive energy with all beings; the essence of the Tantric Samaya of wisdom is to enthusiastically apply our teacher's instructions and follow his example as best we can.

2. Good night and Wake up Channels

In Buddhist Tantra it is often taught that within our bodies of flesh, blood and bone, lay energy channels

that fundamentalists inordinate amounts of time and energy visualizing as tubes comprised of light.

It is said we have a blue central channel, the width of an arrow shaft, that begins in the lower abdomen, ascends about a thumb's width before the spine, piercing the horizontal bladder wheel (or chakra if you prefer Sanskrit), navel wheel, heart wheel, and throat wheel

Easy Peace

as it ascends into the skull where it arches forward brushing against the crown wheel at the fontanel before terminating between, and just above the eyebrows.

*There are two side channels.
The moon, or left, side-channel is red, the width of hay or straw and begins at our urethra,* brushes past the most sensitive part of either our citreous or our penis, climbs up the left of our central channel, looping once around the central channel just below the bladder wheel and then just below the navel wheel,

Easy Peace

looping thrice around the central channel just below the heart wheel, looping once again just below the throat wheel, and then just below the crown wheel before terminating in the left nostril.

The sun, or right, side channel is white, also the width of hay or straw and begins in our rectum, brushes past either our G-spot or prostate, climbs up the right of our central channel,

just above the bladder wheel and then just above the navel wheel,*

Easy Peace

just above the heart wheel,*

just above the throat wheel and then once again just above the crown wheel prior to terminating in the left nostril.*

As liberals upon the path of matriarchy none of this needs to be memorized or even visualized.

Our right channel could be stimulating, so we impeded it when its time to go to sleep, by closing our right eye and reading through our left and by sleeping on our right side.

Conversely, our left channel could be sedating, so we impeded it is time to start our day, by rolling over to our left side and laying in the fetal position for a few moments as thoughts of the day's tasks begin to clarify like friends emerging from a fog bank.

Upon rising, we could also close our left eye, and read though our right as we sit upon the toilet to further wake our bodies.

Easy Peace

3. Walking Meditation

After fifteen weeks of twice daily sadhana practice you should have automatically memorized the 33 meditations of Dzogchen's Contemplation, Compassion, and Meditation.

Which should come in handy, as this week you could begin training in brisk, walking meditation.

Its simple, just perform the 33 meditations you've already grown accustomed to while briskly walking through your neighborhood.

This is especially useful during times of emotional upset or even PTSD episode.

Of course if you're so upset as to experience disorientation then please limit your walking course to just going around your block, that way you won't get lost, or walk into traffic.

Blending the 33 meditation techniques you've already learned with brisk walking allows us to bilaterally stimulate our hippocampus and amygdala which aids in the processing of difficult events and emotions.

REMEMBER: upon this path we do not practice rigid concentration which stimulates our sympathetic nervous system, but rather relaxed mindfulness which access our parasympathetic nervous system; the quick path to the light sight, or eager youngling.

Easy Peace

4. Sky Gazing

In “Red Tare’s Treasure” the phrase “queen of the sky” could remind us literally of the practice of sky-gazing, where we perform the contemplation, compassion, and meditation that we are taught in the sixteen week series of meditation classes while gazing into the sky.

Any time of day we could gaze into the sky while meditating, but it could be especially poignant to gaze at the sun, doing so only during the first hour of sunrise, or the last hour of sunset.

In Sanskrit this practice is sometimes referred to as Surya Chaku.

Common sense prevails:

1 – remove your corrective lenses or contact lenses, gaze with the left eye for four breaths, then with the right eye for four breaths, alternating back and forth;

2 – only do this for as long as it feels comfortable, giving yourself permission to progress gradually such as adding seven seconds per day, or seven minutes, or more every day.

3 – relax the tissues of your face, especially around the eyes, allowing the eyelids to close somewhat, viewing the sun through one's eyelashes thus occasionally giving rise to the illusion of subtle rainbows encircling the sun;

4 – don't wander into traffic, for your vision will be dazzled after completing this exercise, thus while it is fine to practice this during opening verbal contemplation & compassion, as well as the silent meditation...

I recommend turning away from the sun during the practice of the closing silent contemplation and compassion thus allowing one's eyes to recalibrate to the ambient lighting.

5 – I recommend the lion posture Simha asana, feet flat on earth or floor, resting one's tuchus upon one's calves, forearms resting upon knees.

Neither mysterious nor occult this practice could act as a subtle tonic to your body.

1. Four Levels of Practice

- Browsers – come to class but do NO homework and see NO transformation.*
- Students – come to class AND do their homework every morning AND every evening; they evolve.*
- Yogis – students who perform one-day retreats every quarter, month or week, practicing four times that day (i.e.: 6am, 10am, 2pm & 6pm).*
- Monastics – students who live as if on permanent retreat, practicing four times every day (i.e.: 6am, 10am, 2pm & 6pm).*

Twenty minutes of formal silent meditation for First Level Students – those who are seeking a “life lubricant”

Forty minutes of formal silent meditation for Second Level Students – those who desire a “profound evolution” such as healing PTSD, overcoming a tragic past, or transcending a disempowering and oft repeated pattern

Sixty minutes of formal silent meditation for Third Level Students – those who yearn to rapidly master enlightenment’s Blissful-mindfulness, Peaceful-insight and Spontaneous-compassion.

When have we mastered the archetypical Dakini's vulnerability, non-grasping, compassion and centered spontaneity?

When we practice their techniques: spontaneously, habitually, easily and effectively; and their practice has so defined us that we no longer chase a goal...

but are so content to practice the path that we no longer even feel the need to ask whether or not we have mastered it.

3. The MEANS of Mastery

*Ten thousand hours of regular, lucid, strategic practice is often the minimum required to accomplish mastery needed to teach others.
Any student who enthusiastically practices their homework every morning AND every evening for sixteen consecutive weeks could be considered an apprentice.*

A Journeyman is an apprentice who has accumulated 5,000 hours of study and 5,000 hours meditation; ideally for eight hours daily over the course of three and a half years...

and has demonstrated intellectual comprehension and emotional evolution.

*A Master is a journeyman who has accumulated an additional 5,000 hours of study and an additional 5,000 hours of meditation;
ideally for eight hours daily...*

*over the course of an additional three and a half years and has demonstrated intellectual and emotional mastery.
The 10,000 hours is a minimum, for some folks require 20,000 hours, 30,000 hours or more to demonstrate intellectual and emotional mastery.*

Although this path of mastery can be long, it is neither mysterious nor occult.

D. Addendum

Their nudity reminds us of mindfulness' vulnerability, their bodies comprised of light remind us of non-graspability, their beauty reminds us of love's energy, the stability with which he sits reminds us of centeredness, and the abandon with which she sports reminds us of spontaneity.

May love and insight drive our veganism.

The love that yearns to minimize our participation in the exploitation of others; and the insight the seeks sustainability, both ecological and medical.
